Attention Honors & Scholars Students:

IGS Energy, the largest independent retail natural gas and electric supplier, and local Columbus company, will be conducting a series of presentations throughout the Spring semester specifically for Honors & Scholars students. These presentations will be beneficial for those looking to learn more about career paths and opportunities in energy, engineering, business, sales, marketing, and more.

All presentations will take place at 6:00 p.m. at the Kuhn Honors & Scholars House. Each presentation includes a light dinner and an RSVP is required. To RSVP, please email Anna Morris at morris.1112@osu.edu and indicate which date(s) you would like to attend. Space is very limited.

Wednesday, January 22 - IGS Energy Overview
In business since 1989, IGS Energy is the largest independent retail supplier of natural gas in the United States. In this session, you will learn more about the history of the company, the current product portfolio (natural gas, electricity, and alternative energy products), the company culture, and ways IGS Energy supports the central Ohio community. The Overview session is an important prerequisite to subsequent sessions.

Wednesday, February 5 - Natural Gas
Natural gas supply is a core business for IGS Energy. In this session, you will learn more about the natural gas industry including the processes used to extract natural gas and how it becomes available for use in your homes and in industry.

Wednesday February 19 - Electricity
Electricity is fundamental to so many things that we do at home and at work. In this session, you will learn more about the power industry and the processes used to generate and distribute electricity to our homes and businesses.

Wednesday, March 5 - CNG
Compressed Natural Gas, commonly referred to as CNG, is a cleaner and more economical fuel when compared with other fossil fuels such as diesel and petroleum. Learn more about how CNG is produced and what IGS Energy is doing today to advance the use of CNG as a vehicle fuel.

Wednesday, March 19 - What are Employers Looking for?
Employers such as IGS are looking for more than just what you can learn in the classroom. Come hear about important interpersonal skills for the workplace and how you can make yourself stand out from the crowd.
